

Fulltime Position in Systematic Theology

Full time faculty position: Systematic Theology

The Mexican American Catholic College (MACC) is a private institution preparing seminarians and lay leaders for faithful service to a multicultural Church. MACC invites qualified applicants to apply for a full-time faculty position to be filled as soon as possible. The successful candidate will possess the following qualifications: will be a faithful, practicing Catholic who will seek a mandatum from the Archbishop of San Antonio, will sign an oath of fidelity, will be able to teach in both English and Spanish and will be committed to partnering in the formation of the whole person.

Applicants should submit a letter of application, CV, transcripts, and three letters of recommendation. For more information or to apply, please contact MACC's Academic Dean, Dr. David Delaney: ddelaney@maccsa.org, (210)732-2156, x 7147. MACC is an equal opportunity employer. Salary Range: TBD. For more information visit: <http://www.maccsa.org>

Preferred Academic and Professional Qualifications:

- Terminal degree (i.e. PhD, STD, ThD, etc.) in Systematic Theology; ideal candidate will also have an M.A. in Scripture or philosophy
- Demonstrated excellence in teaching.
- Participates and contributes toward faculty meetings and collaborates with fellow faculty and registrar.
- Active participation in professional organizations.
- Demonstrated ability to communicate effectively with students achieving completion of objectives and learning outcomes.
- Faithful, practicing Catholic able to teach in both English and Spanish.
